„You never know how strong you are until being strong is your only choice.“

Looking back on 2015, it's clear that it was a turbulent year. On a global scale, governments were facing challenges like ongoing armed conflicts, intensified terrorist attacks, an influx of refugees and hostile reactions by „concerned citizens“. In Reggaeville, heated discussions simmered around waste man, musical sell-out and the Billboard Reggae Artist of the Year. Other topics were celebrated: the events around Bob Marley's 70th Birthday in Jamaica, for instance. Likewise, the ongoing trend to legalize or – in the case of Jamaica – at least decriminalize the possession of Ganja, giving rise to brands such as „Marley Natural“ and „Juju Royal“ by Julian Marley. Plus, it paved the way for a Jamaican edition of the High Times Cannabis Cup which was held in Negril for the first time!

„Don't bury your thoughts, put your vision to reality.“

Concerning our beloved music, 2015 was full of exciting news and uplifting developments as well. Thus, we were able to witness the inclusion of the so-called Reggae Revival into main-stream media: Vogue went Jamaica! The victory march of Reggae continued, and Reggaeville was there to share magical moments with you. Our international team reported live from Rototom in Spain, SummerJam & Reggae Jam in Germany, Ostroda in Poland, Reggae On The River in the US and Sting in Jamaica – we were even invited to cover the Welcome To Jamrock Reggae Cruise! With hundreds of interviews, album reviews, concert and festival reports as well as thousands of photos on our homepage (resulting in 3,4 million visits), 147 video world premieres on our Youtube channel (38 million views), 23 million plays on Soundcloud, 2 printed magazines and countless posts on our Facebook-page (that broke the record of 1 million fans in October), we did everything we could to keep you updated on the global community's happenings and interesting newcomers. Speaking of which: a new direction was taken in Reggaeville's presentation of the World Reggae Contest, we broadcasted the finals via live stream from the Ostroda Reggae Festival.

Take some time out to look back on the highlights of the past 12 months, find the hot-off-the-press results of our Reggaeville Poll and indulge in images, words, sound and power with our Yearbook 2015. Enjoy a monthly time-travel to the heydays of Mr. Marley displaying a one of a kind memorabilia collection. And, just like Bob and Seeco here, never forget to smile – 2016 needs our positivity!!!

„I only have one thing I really like to see happen. I like to see mankind live together - black, white, Chinese, everyone - that's all.“

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS 2015

Compiled by Munchy & Justine Ketola

SILLY WALKS DISCOTHEQUE

Although we had some ups and downs - great achievements as well as bitter disappointments - 2015 was overall a good year for us and for reggae music, the music we love so dearly. First of all we want to say thank you to all who have been supporting us! The release of our Ram Jam juggling has been receiving great feedback and we're simply overwhelmed by the continued success of our Brighter Days riddim that has been growing and growing all over the world. As a sound system we travelled to a lot of nice places such as Norway, Finland, Italy and Costa Rica and met lots of great people.

Among the highlights of the year was a trip to Jamaica in November to work on a new album that we are going to release this summer with such great artists as Marcia Griffiths, Jesse Royal, Dalton Harris, Assassin, Bugle and many others. We are celebrating our 25th anniversary this year with a new album and a tour, so we are looking forward to an exciting year in 2016.

TREESHA

I have two highlights to share for 2015. One definitely being the release of my album and the amazing feedback I got from people all over the world. Very humbling and inspiring. Thanks be to the Most High for making this possible and everyone who supported me through this journey. And also to the people I got to meet because of music: thank you for your support, motivation and kind words.

The other is the Gentleman MTV Unplugged Tour: being a part of the whole production and being able to perform with so many amazing musicians and artists. That was definitely a blessing and a great musical experience. Nuff respect to Gentleman for letting me be a part of that experience.

JUGGLERZ

The best reggae moment for Jugglerz in 2015 is very easy to identify: it's not winning War Ina East Soundclash against Black Chiney, it's not waking up in California on a 14 days / 12 shows US tour after a crazy party, it's not seeing Tony Matterhorn hectically searching his laptop after shelling a round at Dream Weekend in Jamaica, it's not closing the gate at a sold-out event, and it's not entering a stage in front of a couple thousand people or jugglerzradio.com getting 2000 visits a day. It is also not reaping the fruits of hard work for Jugglerz Records by hearing our productions being played all over the world.

The best reggae moment is when the mix comes in and the new song drops and for the split second the outer world disappears, the melody takes over your body and soul and you forget about your struggles, worries and problems and everything just becomes one. That moment, when the music hits you (like Bob Marley said), is the best reggae moment ever!

Marley back to Jamaica

AFTER A self-imposed exile of 14 months Reggae superstar Bob Marley is returning to his home in Jamaica to play a special peace concert in the country's National Stadium in Kingston.

Marley has not been to Jamaica since the attempt on his life by political assassins in December 1976. That was on the eve of a concert scheduled to take place on the lawn of Prime Minister Michael Manley.

The peace concert, which began the first festival in what was Marley's last year, was the first time that Marley, plus ex-Wailers Peter Tosh, Bunny and the Pioneers, returned to the island. The concert was organized by Dennis Brown, is set to take place on April 21.

It is being set up by the new Peace Movement in Jamaica, an organization formed following the death of the late Marley.

BOB MARLEY - MEMORIES

Compiled by Justine Ketola & Munchy

THIRD WORLD – CAT COORE

I have many memories of Bob Marley but the most special one that comes to my mind is when my son Shiah was born August 20, 1979 and Jacob Miller died in March the following year. I had happened to pass by Bob's house with Shiah who was seven months old at that time. I remember Bob taking Shiah away from his mommy and holding him in his arms, rocking him and smiling at him. He spent a few moments hugging and playing with Shiah.

After that I remember him looking up to me saying: "Cat, my God, I cannot believe that Jacob Miller died. Just can't believe that. How could that happen to somebody like Jacob Miller?" Within a year and two months Bob himself had died. That to me is a bittersweet memory, but it is really something that has remained edged in my mind particularly in light of the fact that my son Shiah, the same child Bob was holding, now plays bass for Damian Marley, Bob's son. I just feel that's extraordinary and it's a memory that lives in me forever and it's one I will always cherish for every single day I live on this earth.

GENTLEMAN

It was the Uprising album which showed me that music is more than music.
Something spiritual!

SEPP DONAHOWER

In the concert I promoted with Bob at the Starlight Amphitheatre July 31, 1978, we secretly arranged for Peter Tosh to reunite with Bob onstage. We had Peter hidden in another dressing room...when Bob began, Tosh came out and embraced with Bob in ecstasy and they lit Los Angeles on fire...Love and magic onstage under the stars. At another show we did at the UC Berkeley Greek Amphitheatre on that tour on July 29, 1978, Bob came up to me after the show and said it was the best performance he had ever played in his life. I told him it was the finest performance I had ever seen from any artist (out of thousands of concerts I produced). These were magic moments from a true messiah I will treasure to my grave.

MARK MILLER

When we played the Santa Barbara County Bowl, it was just amazing. We pulled up to the venue and the whole air was electric with the excitement of the fans, and pot smoke! There were colourful banner and flags flying all over the site and it was packed to the gills just before Bob Marley and the band went onstage.

I did my usual last minute check of all the stage equipment, and Dennis Thompson and I smiled at each other as Bob headed towards the stage. The moment he hit the mic with his usual opening, the audience went wild and stayed that way the entire show. The sky was blue, the wind was light, the air was electrifying, and Bob Marley & the Wailers were absolutely amazing. It was one of those shows we did that literally sent chills up and down my spine...

THIRD WORLD – RICHARD DALEY

The most outstanding memories of Bob Marley date back into the early 70s.

I recorded Keep On Moving with him in London. I still remember the recording studio experience with him at Island Records Studio. Michael Ibo Cooper played keyboard, members of Aswad also recorded Keep On Moving and Punky Reggae Party. Lee Scratch Perry was the producer. To see the chemistry between the two individuals who have so much set the pattern for reggae music through years, stick out for a very long time. It's a memory that cannot be erased.

Next occasion is when he did his first world tour and Third World was the opening band at the Lyceum in London in 1975. The whole musical experience, being the opening act and witnessing what was unveiling to the world for the first time was another formidable experience

PROTOJE

My Bob Marley highlight would have to be the Survival album because it represented a change in his sound, direction and musical vision, and it started the trilogy that he wanted to do. There was great symbolism to it and it's one of the things I remember most about him.

ALBOROSIE

This is my original Bob Marley ticket from the show 1980 at Stadio San Siro in Milan. Some say this was the biggest Bob Marley show ever. 120,000 people attended. The ticket is a present from an old Italian friend that went to the show. Because of my true love for Bob and reggae he decided to give it to me, so I could add it to my reggae memorabilia collection.

HARRISON STAFFORD

The spirit and mysticism of the great Bob Marley has been blowing through the air and inspiring people from all walks of life for decades. In fact this Natural Mystic seems to be gaining momentum since his early passing in 1981 and in 2016 we find the legend's works continue to energize great movements and organizations in their attempts to form a better future for our planet and our children's lives.

For me personally it is an honour to have been inspired by Bob's music and message; and to take up reggae music as a vehicle to free people mentally, spiritually, and physically is my blessings back to our beloved prophet who has given hope to millions.

MARLEY SET TO WAIL

Andrew Gold solo tour

ANDREW GOLD, whose "Lovely Boy" is number 23 in this week's Melody Maker singles chart, is in line for his most headlining British tour later this year. Gold first came to British east attention, albeit in a modest (and somewhat) manner, in 1974.

As a result of the critical acclaim and success for the performance on the Bluebird tour, following has started for his own series of concerts in the autumn. This also follows the success of Gold's recent American tour. Despite the solo appearances, however, Gold has no plans to quit Bonaparte's backing band.

REGGAE king Bob Marley is set to return to the British concert stage — but he has had a hard time making the right moves after his first tour in 1976. The singer, who has since become a worldwide star, is set to return to the UK in 1977.

Marley will be visiting London in October to perform at the Royal Albert Hall. He will be joined by his band, the Wailers, and will be performing with them for the first time in the UK.

NEWS EXCLUSIVE by RAY COLEMAN

Bob Marley is set to return to the British concert stage — but he has had a hard time making the right moves after his first tour in 1976. The singer, who has since become a worldwide star, is set to return to the UK in 1977. Marley will be visiting London in October to perform at the Royal Albert Hall. He will be joined by his band, the Wailers, and will be performing with them for the first time in the UK.

Marley's huge gig

A HEART London appearance is being planned for reggae superstar Bob Marley to join with the Wailers play Wembley Empire Pool.

Yoursense plans for the show on June 24 will be to provide the African and Caribbean music scene with a major reggae event.

Marley and the Wailers will make the Wembley and the Empire Pool, which is a reggae event, a landmark in music over the world's reggae scene and give reggae a new lease of life.

Will be back, the page 1

by COLIN IRWIN

SANDY DENNY is dead. One of the greatest girl singers ever produced by Britain and a controversial figure in the music scene died at the weekend after a single session.

She was 34 years old. A heart attack was the cause of her death. She had been in hospital for a week, and her death was a shock to the music world.

REVIEW: CHRONIXX & DRE ISLAND IN LONDON, UK

In 2013, for his London debut, Chronixx packed out the Scala in King's Cross to danger levels. In 2014, he rammed Rodigan's Ram Jam at Electric Brixton. For 2015...

REVIEW: BERES HAMMOND & BUNNY WAILER IN LONDON

A week after Chronixx' sellout show at Somerset House, reggae history was made in London again.

ALBUM REVIEW: ON THE CORNER RIDDIM

As much name recognition as Damian "Jr. Gong" and Stephen "Ragga" Marley have as artistes, their label, Ghet-to Youths International, still manages to fly under the radar with mainstream audiences.

ALBUM REVIEW: BOBBY HUSTLE - IT'S THE HUSTLE

There are plenty of American reggae acts in 2015, but none of them as genuine as Bobby Hustle. Built on a broad knowledge of reggae and dancehall music, Bobby's authenticity is most impressive because it is...

ALBUM REVIEW: JAH OVA EVIL - FOREVER JUDAH

The story behind Jah Ova Evil is a tragic one. Alty George Nunes III aka Likkle Joe aka Jah Ova Evil (J.O.E.), an extremely talented youth and member of the Twelve Tribes of Israel born and raised in Vineyard Town in eastern Kingston, has passed away in February 2011 at age 24 before the debut album he worked on was finished.

ALBUM REVIEW: JAH CURE - THE CURE

Jah Cure releases this highly-anticipated album produced by him and his team, he spent $70,000 US dollars to record and present it for release with VP Records. A prolific artist, the album tracks were carefully sequenced after being chosen from 35 different songs.

BOB MARLEY - MEMORIES

Compiled by Justine Ketola

SKY HIGH

Bob Marley was my big brother. I grow up and I know Bob since 1968 so I know Bob from a long time. It was around downtown Parade, Kingston, Upsetters, Lee Scratch Perry, you know, me and Bob was so close, Bob, Peter and Bunny. The way Bob's life affect I, in a lot of ways, the mission of life that were pursuing about Africa, and to live to go to Africa in the physical and to stand firm in Africa and set up the foundation in Africa.

Bob's life was about Africa, yuh no see it and Bob trod through in the physical structure, that mission, Rita Marley started but the mission don't accomplish because it have to happen by I and I as part of the family. Bob leave that mission and if Bob was around this day, that mission would accomplish, lots of us would be in Africa and set up business, with duties for lots of people. That was Bob's greatest mission so it's affect I until this time, since 1981 I have been around the children them, Bob Marley family helping them along the way. But the same mission in Africa, still don't accomplish. So Bob Marley as my brother you know, I really miss him a lot in that way because I know that mission would be accomplished.

ROGER STEFFENS

To say that Bob Marley changed my life would be an understatement. My life has been radically transformed by my awareness, and knowledge of the extraordinary accomplishments of this humble man's life. I've lectured all over the world for the past 32 years to people from the outback in Australia, to the bottom of the Grand Canyon who follow Bob Marley and in some extreme cases even deify him.

Marley was the most extraordinary artist of the 21st century and I think that fact is nailed down for good in this year in which Bob being gone from us practically matches the number of years he was with us on earth. We will never see his like in our lifetime again. People all over the world to this day are discovering the depth of his message and the solace that his lyrical insights have given the world. He wrote for all time.

ERROL BROWN

Bob Marley put me on a next level in my career, international, all over the world. Bob Marley put me in the spotlight, because I was at my uncle's studio which is Treasure Isle. When I decided to leave Treasure Isle, Marcia Griffiths come and say "Bob Marley want to meet you." When we reach Bob Marley I couldn't believe it, we were in the record shop at Hope Road, Tuff Gong. Bob Marley just walk in and look at Marcia and say "Marcia who dat bredda?" with a little grin on him face. My heart was beating, I couldn't believe it. He had problems, the studio never start work yet because there was no bass for the studio and they want to start Survival and so he said "Come check out this studio for me." When I check out the studio, I go for some bass I don't hear any. The studio is so pretty, the speakers mounted so beautifully in the wall and I said "Bob let's change the speakers". We call carpenter and take out the speakers, and build and then there goes a big smile so he's hearing the real sound. When I did take the cover off of that board and I see all of these flashing lights, because you know, Treasure Isle was 12 channels, and I see 32 channels and a whole heap of flashing lights, I was scared. Alex Sadkin who was the engineer for Survival, I was the assistant, I just watch him and learn and ask questions and learn. Every time I would ask him "What this do? What this do?" Do you know what he did? 'Mr. Brown, here's the manual for the board.' I said "Cho, I read so much technical stuff, I want you to just show me". I did some on my own and I learned about the board and I was good. Bob went on the Survival tour, I was in the studio, when they come back the Wailers say "Bwoy, Errol we and Bob talk, we want you to do the next album". He came into the studio and heard Who Feels It Knows it with Rita Marley and asked, "How come my album a gwan and I don't hear them sound deh?" Look like when they were on tour they talk about the sound wah dem hear coming out of the studio, they are hearing Who Feels It. So I did the next album which is Uprising. It bring joy to my heart.

Then that next year we go on the Uprising tour, 1980 we were in Europe and all of that and you can imagine when we reach Italy and we see 100,000 people listen to reggae music coming like rock music. Think about it, we were with Average White Band. You can imagine this big stage and people are throwing things on the stage, it's like I am in a dream. Everywhere we go it's sold out, I couldn't believe it. At the end of the tour we were in England now and they say everybody not going home, and I say to the tour manager "I want to go home". I see Bob Marley in the lobby, Bob Marley had a good heart you know, I tell you. I don't know if there will be a next artist that will come about like Bob Marley. Bob Marley see me going with my suitcase and he said, "Errol where are you going? We wait for some money from some promoter cause we have some bonus a give unnu". Everybody got more than them salary for bonus, that's how great that man was, he don't hold it, him share it. When you see Bob come off stage his clothes wet, just like he just come out of the shower, he really worked on stage. So that was my life in a way, it was so sad cause that man took reggae and made what no one else will ever do. I will never see reggae music like this again, I don't think so. I hope to see it go back to that but its long time now and we haven't had it.

I remember even after Bob Marley died, I start tour with Jimmy Cliff, we went to Ivory Coast and Jimmy had a press conference, all of us go to the press conference, and he sat down at the conference table and we sit down in the crowd, and him naming everybody. Jimmy Cliff tell and "This is dat, dat, dat", and when he said Errol Brown, everybody turn round to me and they said, "Can I kiss your hand?" and some of them cried. Bob Marley carried me to the next level in my career, and yet still where my sound was at that time, could you imagine with the knowledge that I have now? It was too good to be true, when he was sick we did Confrontation and I got production credit and everything, it was great. I wish everyone had the heart of Bob Marley, and give reward to people who deserve it, he liked to share all the time, give what is due to Caesar what is due to Caesar you nah mean? This memory can't leave me, it will never leave me until I die. I don't want to die because I love Earth, I don't feel that way, but just talking about Bob Marley gives me a happy spirit. No one has come to carry it, I wish someone would come to carry it, because it's our culture, I would like to see it go back there, it's hard.

Bob Marley called me to be where I am right now in life, and 'nuff respect to Marcia Griffiths. She knew I was leaving Treasure Isle and Byron Lee dem did want me and Dynamic Sound and she said 'Anywhere you going I'm going with you but I want you to come meet Bob Marley.'

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS 2015

Compiled by Munchy & Justine Ketola

SENTINEL SOUND

2015 was a very cool year for us! From Bass Odyssey and Renaissance Disco, for whom we promoted tours, to Raphael and Conkarah, who produced mixtapes with us, we worked with a lot of great people and experienced a notable festival summer with shows all over Europe.

Early October we went to New York to play at the first Soundfest aka Bass Odyssey Anniversary in America. Being featured on that show was an honour for us. The dub that had everybody talking about us that night was a special by Supercat. If you are into sound system culture, I'm sure you agree that one of the most controversial topics in 2015 on the sound system circuit was the fact that Supercat started to voice dubplates again. No matter how much some people want to believe that these dubplates are nothing but a waste of money, all real lovers of sound system culture have to admit that history was made in this tiny basement studio in Barcelona in August.

We'd like to thank everyone who made this year so great for us. Big up to everyone who was at one of our dances. It was awesome to party with you.

HARRISON STAFFORD OF GROUNDATION

2015 was a great year of self-discovery. A year that will stand as a reminder that sometimes very difficult situations move you towards a positive light and really show you a better path to walk. JAH is our spirit and JAH lives with our planet Earth, the Earth is our most prized possession, and we need to protect it with all our strength and power. Also there is nothing positive gained by having war and civil unrest (only huge profits for private companies), so all leaders and heads of State must have and maintain an open dialogue with one another, and there should be no „nation“ or „country“ or „political party“ off this table of communication.

If we can focus 2016 on these two ideals and concepts we will have a beautiful year!

More health and strength.

PERFECT GIDDIMANI

As I sit here thinking back I wish I could have lived it over again, I fulljoyed ever moment of it. It's one of those years where I really achieved a lot from the hard work that was put in.

I felt completely honoured to be one of the very few reggae artist to a do a full tour in the Republic of China - it was an unforgettable experience. Self Grammy and Hashtagharvest were released independently by Giddimani Records, plus a few other singles. I was extremely happy to see Joss Stone embracing and copying our beautiful, enormous, gigantic, massive music that we call Reggae. This only proves again how mighty and incomparable the genre is. Thank you all for your support, it was a very great year indeed. I know I didn't have to remind you as my actions spoke louder than my words. Big up to the Reggaeville team and all my fans worldwide.

ROCKY DAWUNI

The highlight of my year was when I received the news that my new album „Branches of the Same Tree“ was nominated for a GRAMMY award. It was a joyous and fulfilling finale to a year of hard work of touring and the beginning of my next chapter as an artist.

GENTLEMAN

My highlight 2015 was the birth of my daughter! She changed my priorities.

MICAH SHEMAIAH

My highlight of the year is really my son being born, but musically I would say the worldwide resurgence of vinyl. It means our work is making strides and we give thanks.

BOB MARLEY
DECEMBER

Der Rastaman in Wien?

Seit Oktober herrscht hinter den Kulissen das große Tanzchen: Kommt Reggae-Superstar BOB MARLEY nach Österreich? Bei Redaktionsschluss ist ein Veranstalter zwecks Vertragsunterzeichnung nach New York geflogen. Zu 95 Prozent steigt am 2. oder 3. Juni in der Wiener Stadthalle das Konzert des Jahres.

Gleich drei Konzertveranstalter versuchen seit gut einem halben Jahr, Jamaicas größten Daventreiber Bob Marley nach Österreich zu locken. Vier Mal hat der Rastaman bisher zugesagt. Und genauso oft sagte er auch wieder ab. Die ersten Versuche waren an Marleys hohen Gegenforderungen gescheitert. Daß ein für Mitte Mai geplantes Konzert ins Wasser fiel, hatte allerdings einen fraglichen Grund: Am 23. März verunglückte Jacob Miller, ein guter Freund Marleys und Sänger der Reggae-Gruppe Inner Circle, tödlich bei einem Verkehrsunfall in Kingston, Jamaica. Eine Woche vor Marleys Tod war er dort.

Sam in Brasilien gewesen. Sie führten Gespräche mit einer Filmproduktionsfirma, die die zwei Reggae-Stars für die Hauptrollen in einem neuen Spielfilm über Jamaicas Musikszene verpflichten wollten. Bob Marley und seine Wailers wollten sich zusammen mit Jacob Miller und Inner Circle auf Europatournee gehen. Als Marley in New York vom Tod seines Freundes erfuhr, sagte er die Tournee sofort ab.

nicht nur eine Möglichkeit rasch zu viel Geld zu kommen. Reggae ist eine Art zu leben: Rebellion und Besinnung, Kampf und Schönheit. Nach dem sanften „Kaya“ seiner letzten Platte „Sun“ auch wieder sehr vehement die Unterdrückung der Schwarzen in Afrika und seiner Heimat Jamaica. Nachvollziehen läßt sich Ausstrahlung seiner Musik seiner Persönlichkeit ablesen bei seinen Konzerten. Und es sieht ganz so aus, als hätte er am 2. oder 3. Juni zu erstmals Gelegenheit die 150.000 Schilling-Gesamtauszahlung wurden bereits sein Konto überwiesen.

REPORTS filtering over from Jamaica suggest that Bob Marley is keen to undertake a major UK tour as part of a comprehensive European tour sometime next year.

There is also a strong possibility of Millie Jackson returning to the UK for a major tour in February. Polydor have just issued a live double album by Ms Jackson only weeks after her collaboration with Isaac Hayes on the 'Royal Rappins' set.

It is rumoured that Isaac Hayes will be joining her on the tour — thereby making it a double headline package.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS 2015

Compiled by Munchy & Justine Ketola

SUNS OF DUB

Our highlight of the year would definitely have to be our releases of our Far East Mixtape with Mighty Crown and our follow up debut LP release Far East Dub LP released in November, with CDs and vinyls in December, and special edition transparent vinyl celebrating Ethiopian Christmas on 7th January 2016.

We would like to thank all contributors and supporters and all who had the opportunity to come see us during our 2015 summer and winter tours in Europe. We promise more positive vibes with bigger and more experimental performances and music.

Respect and Manners. Rastafari.

JAH CURE

2015 was a very blessed year for me and my family. I was nominated for a Grammy for The Cure, the first album I produced. The Cure was named #2 Reggae Album of the Year in Billboard. I'm back with VP Records, the label that released my earliest albums. I put together a strong team of management, social media and career advisors to move forward into the new year even stronger. God is good.

POW POW MOVEMENT

In addition to many personal highlights like SummerJam for Devon, the Keep It Real Festival for Junior Carl, or for King Earl - his first stagedive at the annual X-Mas Dance at U-Club; the main event of the year for the entire Pow Pow crew the was naturally the „25 Years Pow Pow Movement „ Tour. Additionally this year the music has taken us to new locations such as Madeira and the Azores. Overall we find it difficult to define highlights because even the smallest dance can bring the most vibes sometimes.

SEBASTIAN STURM

I think, there were 3 things, that I should always mention if someone ask me about the year 2015:

We've recorded the „Kingston Session“ at Harry J's in Jamaica. All about the „Crowdfunding - Project“ around that album, was a very exciting experience for the band and me. Again, big thanx, to all our supporters of that project!

We played such a nice tour through Portugal, full of sweet surprises and great moments! On this tour, all band-members seemed so relaxed, happy and excited! Lisbon, nice sun, beaches, surfing, good food, funny concerts and of course, only great people!

On the opposite of all wellness moments in that year, we played also a weird tour in the late summer time. I think I won't forget that we drove 5000km by car, in 5 or 6 days and played just 4 concerts! But... the concerts were great and special. So I can also extract positive moments out of this time!

2015 was definitely a mad year!
